

THE NEW FRENCH LOOK

Thames
&Hudson

LAUREN LI

Photographe THOMAS DE BRUYNE

Architect/
Interior Designer
CAPRINI & PELLERIN
ARCHITECTES

Using branches from the garden is a beautiful way to bring the outdoors in, and perfectly in keeping with that effortless French style.

Photographe THOMAS DE BRUYNE

Architect/
Interior Designer
CAPRINI & PELLERIN
ARCHITECTES

An arch and circular motif was taken from the original architecture of this apartment and repeated throughout for a cohesive interior design.

TIP A guiding idea, such as a shape, that underpins the interior design for the entire house, can provide design answers to form lighting, cabinets, mirrors and other interior features.

FRENCH DÉCOR ESSENTIALS

COLOUR PLAY

Clean combinations of complementary colours.

Photographeur STEPHAN JULLIARD

Architect/Interior Designer
SOPHIE DRIES ARCHITECT

PATTERNS

Confidently mixing patterns and shapes.

Photographeur STEPHAN JULLIARD

Interior Designer
SOPHIE DRIES ARCHITECT

FIBRES

Rattan, sea grass and wicker lend a handcrafted touch.

Photographeur THOMAS DE BRUYNE

Interior Designer
CAPRINI & PELLERIN ARCHITECTES

CONTRAST

Old pieces juxtaposed with contemporary.

Photographeur HEJU STUDIO

Interior Designer
HEJU STUDIO